TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION: BUILDING MAINTENANCE

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Queridos hermanos, en el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús repite varias veces una expresión que toca el corazón: “No tengan miedo”. Y no lo dice como una frase vacía, sino como una promesa nacida del amor de Dios. El Señor conoce nuestras luchas, nuestras preocupaciones y también nuestras necesidades más concretas. Por eso afirma que ni un solo pajarillo cae al suelo sin que el Padre lo sepa, y que hasta los cabellos de nuestra cabeza están contados. Es decir: Dios no se olvida de ninguno de sus hijos, y mucho menos de los más necesitados.

En nuestra sociedad hay muchas familias que cargan preocupaciones por el trabajo, la salud, los gastos de la casa, la soledad o la incertidumbre del futuro. También en nuestras comunidades parroquiales encontramos personas que llevan en silencio el peso de una enfermedad, una dificultad económica o una herida familiar. A todos ellos, el Señor les dice hoy: “Ustedes valen mucho a mis ojos”. El amor de Dios se manifiesta precisamente allí donde el corazón humano se siente más frágil. Él no abandona al pobre, no se olvida del enfermo, no desprecia al cansado, ni pasa de largo ante el que sufre.

Al acercarse el tiempo de las vacaciones, muchos tendrán oportunidad de descansar, visitar a la familia o salir de la ciudad. Demos gracias a Dios por ese tiempo de alivio, pero no olvidemos que también en vacaciones seguimos siendo discípulos del Señor. Descansar no significa alejarnos de Dios. Al contrario, puede ser una hermosa oportunidad para volver a Él con más calma, para rezar en familia, para agradecer, para contemplar su presencia y para renovar el corazón. Por eso, aunque cambien nuestros horarios, no faltemos a la Santa Misa dominical. Allí el Señor nos espera para fortalecernos con su Palabra y con su Cuerpo. Y que tampoco falte la oración diaria, aunque sea sencilla: una señal de la cruz hecha con fe, un Padrenuestro en familia, un rosario, una visita al Santísimo o un momento de silencio delante de Dios.

Aprovecho para felicitar a todos los padres en su día. Dios les conceda la perseverancia y las fuerzas de para seguir cumpliendo su misión.

Fr. Julio

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus repeats several times a phrase that speaks directly to the heart: “Do not be afraid.” He does not say it as an empty reassurance, but as a promise rooted in the love of God. The Lord knows our struggles, our worries, and even our most concrete needs. That is why He tells us that not even a sparrow falls to the ground without the Father knowing it, and that even the hairs of our head have all been counted. In other words, God does not forget any of His children, especially those who are most in need.

This Gospel speaks in a special way to our reality since many families carry heavy burdens: concerns about work, health, household expenses, loneliness, or uncertainty about the future. In our parish communities, too, there are many who quietly bear the weight of illness, financial hardship, or family struggles. To all of them, the Lord says today: “You are worth much more.” God's love is often revealed most clearly where the human heart feels weakest and most vulnerable. He does not abandon the poor, forget the sick, ignore the weary, or pass by those who suffer.

As the season of summer vacations approaches, many will have the opportunity to rest, visit family, or travel out of town. We should thank God for that time of refreshment, but we must also remember that even during vacation, we remain disciples of the Lord. Rest does not mean stepping away from God. On the contrary, it can be a beautiful opportunity to return to Him more intentionally, to pray with our family, to give thanks, to recognize His presence, and to renew our hearts. For that reason, even if our schedules change, we should not miss Sunday Mass. There the Lord waits for us to strengthen us with His Word and with His Body. And our daily prayer should not be neglected either, even if it is simple: the Sign of the Cross made with faith, an Our Father prayed together, a Rosary, a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, or a few moments of silence before God.

I'd like to take this opportunity to wish all fathers a happy Father's Day. May God grant you perseverance and strength to continue fulfilling their mission.

Fr. Julio

WEEKLY MESSAGE FROM
ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO GARCÍA-SILLER, MSPS

Pope Leo XIV, writing on the love for the poor, reminds us that “contact with those who are lowly and powerless is a fundamental way of encountering the Lord of history.” Anthony proved this every day in Padua — spending hours in the confessional, working for debtors, standing between the powerless and their oppressors. The harvest was abundant; he labored until his body failed at 36. You are the protagonists of this city and this archdiocese.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ,
You asked us to pray
to the Master of the harvest
to send out laborers for His harvest,
as You were moved with pity
seeing the multitudes without a shepherd.
Mercifully hear our prayers!
Through the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Divine Grace,
May many more men respond to Your call to the Priesthood, to continue
Your mission on earth.
You who live and reign forever and ever.
Amen.
