TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION: BUILDING MAINTENANCE

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Queridos hermanos, este año, mientras nuestra nación conmemora el 250.º aniversario de su independencia, los obispos de los Estados Unidos han invitado a todos los fieles a participar en un solemne acto de consagración al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Este acontecimiento histórico es mucho más que una expresión de devoción; es una invitación a poner nuestra patria, nuestras comunidades y nuestras familias bajo el señorío amoroso de Cristo.

El Sagrado Corazón nos revela el corazón mismo de Dios. Es un corazón traspasado por nuestra salvación y ardiente de amor por la humanidad. En el Evangelio, Jesús se presenta como "manso y humilde de corazón" (Mt 11,29). Al consagrarnos a su Corazón, no solo contemplamos estas virtudes, sino que nos comprometemos a imitarlas. Nuestra nación necesita hoy la humildad que reconoce nuestra dependencia de Dios y la mansedumbre que supera las divisiones mediante la caridad, el perdón y el respeto mutuo.

El Sagrado Corazón nos enseña que la verdadera grandeza no se encuentra en el poder, sino en el amor que se entrega. Como discípulos de Cristo, estamos llamados a construir una sociedad marcada por la caridad fraterna, donde la dignidad de toda persona sea respetada y donde busquemos el bien común por encima de los intereses particulares.

Esta invitación encuentra un eco especial en el Evangelio de este domingo (Mt 9,36-10,8). Al ver a las multitudes, Jesús se compadeció de ellas porque estaban cansadas y abatidas, como ovejas sin pastor. Entonces dijo a sus discípulos: "La mies es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos; rueguen, por tanto, al dueño de la mies que envíe obreros a su cosecha".

También en nuestra nación la mies es abundante. Son innumerables los corazones que necesitan escuchar el Evangelio y experimentar el amor de Cristo. Por ello, al encomendar nuestro país al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, elevamos una oración especial por el aumento de las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado, a la vida consagrada y al compromiso apostólico de los fieles laicos. Que nuestros jóvenes tengan la valentía de escuchar la voz del Señor y responder con generosidad a su llamada.

Que el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús renueve nuestra nación, fortalezca nuestras familias, suscite nuevas vocaciones y nos enseñe a vivir según su humildad, su mansedumbre y su amor sin medida.

Ah, y por supuesto, Go Spurs Go!
Fr. Julio

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This year, as our nation commemorates the 250th anniversary of its independence, the Catholic bishops of the United States have invited the faithful to participate in a solemn act of consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This historic moment is more than a devotional gesture; it is an invitation to place our country, our communities, and our families under the loving lordship of Christ.

The Sacred Heart reveals the very heart of God. It is a heart pierced for our salvation, burning with love for humanity. In the Gospel, Jesus describes Himself as "meek and humble of heart" (Matthew 11:29). Through this consecration, we are called not merely to admire those virtues, but to imitate them. Our nation is in great need of the humility that recognizes our dependence upon God and the meekness that overcomes division through charity, forgiveness, and mutual respect.

The Sacred Heart teaches us that true greatness is found not in power, but in self-giving love. As disciples of Christ, we are challenged to build a society marked by fraternal charity, where the dignity of every person is respected and where we seek the common good before our own interests.

This call is closely connected to the Gospel proclaimed this Sunday (Matthew 9:36-10:8). Seeing the crowds, Jesus was moved with compassion because they were "troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." He then tells His disciples: "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

Our nation continues to be a fertile field for the Gospel. The harvest remains abundant, but the need for holy priests, deacons, religious sisters and brothers, and committed lay disciples is greater than ever. As we entrust our country to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, let us also pray fervently for an increase in vocations and encourage our young people to listen generously to the Lord's call.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus renew our nation, strengthen our families, inspire new vocations, and teach us to live with His humility, meekness, and boundless love.

Ah, Go Spurs Go!
Fr. Julio

WEEKLY MESSAGE FROM
ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO GARCÍA-SILLER, MSPS

*The Eucharist does not simply feed individuals;
it creates a people. You were made for this communion.
The same Spirit who hovered over the waters at creation,
who descended on Jesus at the Jordan,
who transformed frightened disciples into fearless witnesses
— that Holy Spirit now makes His home in you.*

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ,
You asked us to pray
to the Master of the harvest
to send out laborers for His harvest,
as You were moved with pity
seeing the multitudes without a shepherd.
Mercifully hear our prayers!
Through the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Divine Grace,
May many more men respond to Your call to the Priesthood, to continue
Your mission on earth.
You who live and reign forever and ever.
Amen.
