TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION: BUILDING MAINTENANCE

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL: $12,756.00 (68%)

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Queridos hermanos, en el Evangelio, Jesús dirige a sus discípulos una pregunta que atraviesa los siglos y llega también hasta nosotros: "Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?" Pedro responde con una profesión de fe: "Tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios vivo." Pero inmediatamente ocurre algo hermoso: después de que Pedro reconoce quién es Jesús, Jesús le revela a Pedro quién es él: "Tú eres Pedro, y sobre esta piedra edificaré mi Iglesia."

Este diálogo nos recuerda una verdad fundamental de nuestra vida cristiana: solamente cuando descubrimos verdaderamente quién es Cristo comenzamos también a descubrir quiénes somos nosotros. La fe no nos aleja de nuestra identidad; al contrario, nos permite verla con mayor profundidad. En Cristo descubrimos la dignidad de nuestra vida, comprendemos que somos amados por Dios, llamados por nuestro nombre y enviados con una misión.

Pedro quizá nunca hubiera podido imaginar todo aquello para lo que Dios lo había elegido. Fue su encuentro con Jesús el que le permitió descubrir la grandeza de su vocación. Lo mismo sucede con nosotros. Cuando nuestra fe en Cristo se fortalece, comenzamos a reconocer que nuestra vida no es insignificante, que nuestros dones tienen un propósito y que cada vocación—en la familia, en el matrimonio, en la vida consagrada, en el sacerdocio, en los ministerios y servicios de nuestra comunidad— puede convertirse en una respuesta de amor a Dios.

Este domingo 23 celebraremos la Misa de Instalación mía como Párroco, o toma de posesión. Recibo este momento con gratitud y con la certeza de que mi compromiso continúa siendo el mismo: trabajar para que, como comunidad, nuestra fe en Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo, sea cada día más fuerte. Deseo que nuestra parroquia sea verdaderamente un hogar donde todos encuentren acogida, donde cada persona pueda descubrir la dignidad de su vida y la belleza de su propia vocación, y donde nuestros dones puedan ser puestos generosamente al servicio de la Iglesia.

Que juntos podamos responder siempre con Pedro: "Tú eres el Cristo", y que, al reconocer quién es Jesús, permitamos también que Él nos revele quiénes estamos llamados a ser. Que el Señor les bendiga y nuestra madre santísima les proteja con su intercesión.

P. Julio

Dear brothers and sisters:

In the Gospel, Jesus asks His disciples a question that reaches across the centuries and is addressed to each one of us: "But who do you say that I am?" Peter responds with a profession of faith: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Then something beautiful happens: after Peter recognizes who Jesus is, Jesus reveals to Peter who he is: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

This dialogue reminds us of a fundamental truth of the Christian life: only when we truly discover who Christ is do we begin to discover who we are. Faith does not take us away from our identity; rather, it allows us to see it more deeply. In Christ, we discover the dignity of our lives. We come to understand that we are loved by God, called by name, and entrusted with a mission.

Peter could never have imagined all that God had chosen him to become. It was his encounter with Jesus that allowed him to discover the greatness of his vocation. The same is true for us. As our faith in Christ grows stronger, we begin to recognize that our lives are not insignificant, that our gifts have a purpose, and that every vocation—within the family, marriage, consecrated life, priesthood, and the many ministries and services of our community—can become a loving response to God.

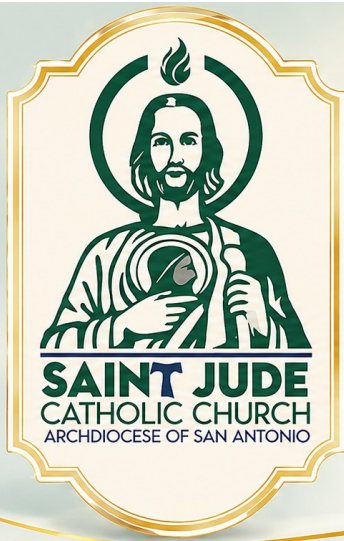

This Sunday, August 23, we will celebrate my Installation Mass as Pastor, the formal beginning of this responsibility within our parish. I receive this moment with gratitude and with the certainty that my commitment remains the same: to work so that, as a community, our faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, may grow ever stronger.

My hope is that our parish will truly be a home where everyone finds welcome, where each person can discover the dignity of his or her life and the beauty of his or her vocation, and where our gifts can be generously placed at the service of the Church.

May we always be able to answer with Peter: "You are the Christ," and by recognizing who Jesus is, allow Him to reveal to us who we are called to become.

May God bless you and Our Lady protect you with her maternal intercession.

Fr. Julio

Pastoral Council Annual Retreat

Together with our Pastoral Council, we celebrated our annual retreat, a time of prayer, reflection, and discernment during which we reflected on the Instruction The Pastoral Conversion of the Parish Community in the Service of the Evangelizing Mission of the Church.

We give thanks to God for the brothers and sisters of our Pastoral Council, who represent the different communities and ministries of our parish and who generously help us discern together God's will for our community.

Let us pray for them and for our entire parish, that the Holy Spirit may guide us along a true path of pastoral conversion and help us become ever more faithful to our evangelizing mission.

"Jesus said to them again,
Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me,
so I send you." — John 20:21

Thank you, Pastoral Council,
for your dedication, service, and love for our parish!

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord Jesus Christ,
You asked us to pray
to the Master of the harvest
to send out laborers for His harvest, as You were moved with pity
seeing the multitudes without a shepherd.
Mercifully hear our prayers!
Through the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Divine Grace,
May many more men respond to Your call
