TODAY'S SECOND COLLECTION: HOPE FOR THE FUTURE

ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL: $13,728.00 (74%)
LAST UPDATE 10/9/2026

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Queridos hermanos, el Evangelio de hoy nos presenta a un rey que prepara un banquete de bodas para su hijo. Todo está dispuesto, y sus servidores salen a llamar a los invitados. Así es el corazón de Dios: un Padre que desea reunirnos y compartir con nosotros su alegría. Su invitación es personal: llega a cada uno porque todos somos amados y tenemos un lugar en su corazón.

Esta llamada es la vocación más grande y universal: la santidad. Por nuestro bautismo fuimos incorporados a Cristo, hechos hijos de Dios y miembros de su pueblo santo. Todos estamos llamados a ser santos, viviendo nuestra fe en la familia, el trabajo y la comunidad. La santidad comienza cuando dejamos que Cristo transforme nuestra vida cotidiana.

Pero la invitación también nos compromete. En la parábola, el rey encuentra a un invitado sin el traje de bodas. Este hábito nupcial nos ayuda a comprender la vestidura blanca del bautismo: es signo de nuestra dignidad bautismal y de la vida nueva que recibimos en Cristo. Cuidar esa vestidura significa vivir de acuerdo con lo que somos.

Como bautizados, estamos llamados a servir, amar, perdonar y dejarnos modelar en todo por Cristo. Así lo hicieron los apóstoles: respondieron a su llamada, caminaron con Él y entregaron su vida al anuncio del Evangelio. También nosotros podemos responder cada día mediante la oración, la caridad y el servicio humilde.

En este tiempo de nuestras fiestas patronales, miremos con cariño el ejemplo de san Judas. Podemos contemplarlo como aquel discípulo que conservó intacto el hábito nupcial: custodió fielmente la vida que Cristo le concedió al llamarlo a seguirle. Su testimonio nos anima a perseverar y a renovar nuestra entrega al Señor.

Que estas celebraciones fortalezcan nuestra identidad de bautizados preguntándonos: ¿reflejan mis palabras y mis acciones la vida de Cristo? Cuando el pecado manche nuestra vestidura, acudamos confiados a su misericordia en la Reconciliación. El Señor nos ofrece siempre la gracia para comenzar de nuevo.

Pidamos a san Judas que interceda por todos nosotros, para responder con alegría al Padre y caminar unidos, como familia parroquial, hacia la santidad cada día.

P. Julio

Dear brothers and sisters:

Today's Gospel presents a king who prepares a wedding feast for his son. Everything is ready, and his servants go out to summon the guests. This reveals God's heart: a Father who desires to gather us and share his joy with us. His invitation is personal. He calls each of us because we are all loved and have a place in his heart.

This invitation is the greatest and universal vocation: the call to holiness. Through baptism, we were united to Christ, became children of God, and entered his holy people. We are all called to become saints by living our faith within our families, workplaces, and community. Holiness begins when we allow Christ to transform our everyday lives.

Yet this invitation also brings responsibility. In the parable, the king finds a guest without a wedding garment. This garment helps us understand the white clothing received at baptism: it signifies our baptismal dignity and the new life given to us in Christ. Caring for this garment means living faithfully according to who we are.

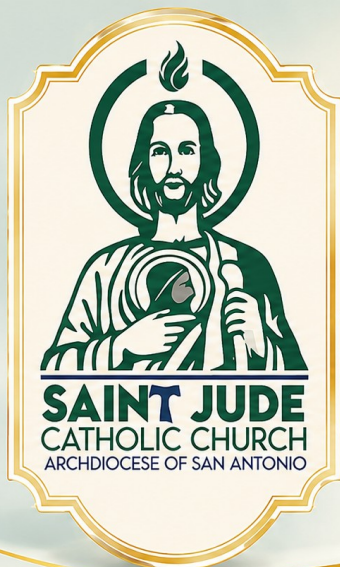

As baptized Christians, we are called to serve, love, forgive, and become like Christ in everything. This is what the apostles did: they answered his call, walked with him, and devoted their lives to proclaiming the Gospel. We, too, can respond each day through prayer, charity, and humble service.

As we celebrate our patronal festivities, let us lovingly consider Saint Jude's example. We can contemplate him as a disciple who kept his wedding garment intact: he faithfully cherished the life Christ gave him when calling him to follow. His witness encourages us to persevere and renew our commitment to the Lord.

May these celebrations strengthen our baptismal identity. Let us ask ourselves: Do my words and actions reflect Christ's life? When sin stains our garment, let us confidently seek his mercy in Reconciliation. The Lord always offers us the grace to begin again.

Let us ask Saint Jude to intercede for us, so that we may joyfully answer the Father's invitation and walk together, as one parish family, toward holiness, faithfully following Christ each day.

Fr. Julio

WEEKLY MESSAGE FROM
ARCHBISHOP GUSTAVO GARCÍA-SILLER, MSPS

The vineyard bears good fruit whenever the dignity of every life is honored, from the child in the womb to the elderly person nearing the end of earthly life, and every vulnerable person in between. Every human life is like a cluster of grapes carefully cultivated by God Himself.

Lord Jesus Christ,
You asked us to pray
to the Master of the harvest
to send out laborers for His harvest,
as You were moved with pity
seeing the multitudes without a shepherd.
Mercifully hear our prayers!
Through the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Divine Grace,
May many more men respond to Your call
